Sweet Lily Natural Nail Spa and Boutique

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental

Salon Ziba

Tracie Martyn Resculpting Facial

Miomia

Best Pedicure:

Sweet Lily Natural Nail Spa and Boutique

Settle into a comfy sofa chair and treat your feet to a peppermint and cucumber aromatherapy bath ($45 for 45 minutes).

22 W. Broadway, (212) 925-5441, MAP

Best Splurge-Worthy Spa:

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental

Massages and facials at this luxe hotel spa will run you about $215—not too bad when you consider the hot tub, steam room, relaxation room, and jaw-dropping views.

80 Columbus Cir., (212) 805-8880, MAP

Best Budget Massage:

Graceful Spa

It's no-frills and wallet-friendly, but the still spotless massage spot offers a 60-minute massage for $60.

205 W. 14th St., 2F, (212) 675-5145, MAP

Best Hair Salon:

Fox and Boy

Cuts start at a reasonable (by NYC standards, ahem) $90 at this laid-back beauty newcomer. Added bonus: They use eco-friendly Davines products.

280 Mulberry St., (212) 965-0369, MAP

Best Bargain Blowout:

Salon Ziba

For a mere $35, you can have your mane tamed in an instant. The midtown location makes it convenient for an after-work spruce up.

200 W. 57th St., (212) 767-0577, MAP

Best Faux Glow:

City Sun

The open-air Auto Bronzer at this tanning salon keeps fans from feeling claustrophobic.

Multiple locations

Best Bikini Wax:

Boom Boom Brow Bar

Tucked in back of the brow bar is a private room where bikini waxes are as close to painless as they come. (Check the site for regular discounts.)

35 7th Ave., (212) 229-2666, MAP

Best Aesthetician:

Jordana Mattoilo at Adam R. Kolker, MD

A licensed medical aesthetician, Jordana expertly cleanses and rejuvenates skin in a comfy treatment chair that's alone worth the trip.

710 Park Ave., (212) 744-6500, MAP

Best Who-Knew Treatment:

Tracie Martyn Resculpting Facial

A mild current helps fight fine lines and puffiness while giving skin a radiant glow.

(Kate Winslet and Susan Sarandon are fans.)

59 5th Ave., 212-206-9333, MAP

Best Beauty Store:

Miomia

This Williamsburg apothecary is fully stocked with cool products from organic, locally made brands as well as perennial favorites from Ole Henriksen and others.

318 Bedford Ave., (718) 490-5599, MAP
